JARDIN D'ARTISTE

The image shows a garden scene viewed through a series of stone arches. In the foreground, three large, ornate glass vases are placed on a stone ledge. The vase on the left is light green and teardrop-shaped. The middle vase is dark brown and bulbous with a spherical top. The vase on the right is light green and bulbous with a spherical top. Behind the vases, there is a lush garden with green plants and red flowers. In the background, a brick building with multiple arches and windows is visible. The overall scene is a blend of art and nature.

Établissez un dialogue entre l'art et la nature en valorisant le bois, la terre-cuite, le fer, l'eau et le verre.

A photograph of a balcony railing with a repeating pattern of balusters. The balusters are light-colored and have a bulbous, rounded shape. They are arranged in a row, and their shadows are cast onto the wooden floor below. The floor is made of dark wood planks. The lighting is bright, creating strong shadows. In the background, some green foliage is visible through the railing. The overall scene is a close-up of the railing and floor.

A photograph of a garden path leading to a dark doorway, framed by a wooden archway and lush greenery with pink and purple flowers. The path is made of stone tiles and leads towards a dark, shadowed entrance. The archway is made of wood and is covered with climbing plants, including roses and wisteria. The garden is filled with various plants, including green foliage, pink roses, and purple wisteria. The lighting is bright, creating strong contrasts between the sunlit areas and the deep shadows of the doorway.

A photograph of a garden scene. In the foreground, a wooden gazebo with intricate carvings is partially visible, with large green leaves and a large pink rose hanging from its structure. Below the rose, a cluster of purple flowers is visible. The gazebo opens up to a garden filled with various plants, including a central fountain with a tiered structure and a small dome. The background shows more garden structures and a clear sky. The overall scene is bright and sunny.

A close-up photograph of a spider web on a rusty metal structure. The web is a delicate, intricate spiral of fine threads, some of which are coated with small droplets of dew. It is stretched between two points of the metal, which has a rough, reddish-brown patina. The background is a dark, out-of-focus green, suggesting foliage. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the web and the metal.

A photograph showing a view through a window. On the left, white curtains hang vertically. The window frame is made of dark wood. Through the window, an outdoor garden is visible. A trellis structure with a diamond pattern is in the foreground, and lush green foliage and trees are in the background. The ground outside appears to be paved with light-colored stones. The overall lighting is bright, suggesting daytime.
